PART A: General Information

When key parts of the health care law take effect in 2014, there will be a new way to buy health insurance: the Health Insurance Marketplace. To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this notice provides some basic information about the new Marketplace and employment-based health coverage offered by your employer.

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that may or may not lower your monthly premium. Open enrollment for health insurance coverage through the Marketplace begins in October 2013 for coverage starting as early as January 1, 2014.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit.¹

Note: If you purchase a health plan through the Marketplace instead of accepting health coverage offered by your employer, then you may lose the employer contribution (if any) to the employer-offered coverage. Also, this employer contribution -as well as your employee contribution to employer-offered coverage- is often excluded from income for Federal and State income tax purposes. Your payments for coverage through the Marketplace are made on an after- tax basis.

How Can I Get More Information?

For more information about your coverage offered by your employer, please check your summary plan description which is on the Archdiocesan Benefits website at <http://archstl.org/hrpp>. Also, you may contact your benefits administrator at your parish/school/agency or contact the Office of Human Resources at 314.792.7546 or benefits@archstl.org.

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

¹ An employer-sponsored health plan meets the "minimum value standard" if the plan's share of the total allowed benefit costs covered by the plan is no less than 60 percent of such costs.

- As your employer, we offer a health plan to:
 - All employees.
 - Some employees. Eligible employees are:
 - Active employee working at least 1,000 hours annually.
 - Religious employees on official assignment with the Archdiocese.

 - Permanent Deacon who is not an active Employee working less than 1,000 hours annually, and who is providing services to an Employer, provided that the Deacon must pay 100% of premium for coverage under the Plan.
- With respect to dependents:
 - We do offer coverage. Eligible dependents are:
Participant's legal Spouse or a married or unmarried child of the Participant or the Participant's spouse who has not yet attained their 26th birthday, regardless of student status. The term child includes any of the following:
 - A natural child
 - A stepchild.
 - A legally adopted child.
 - A child placed for adoption.
 - A foster child who resides in household in a regular parent-child relationship and qualifies as your exemption under the Internal Revenue Code.
 - An unmarried enrolled dependent child who is not able to be self-supporting because of mental or a physical handicap and dependent mainly on the participant for support will not end just because the child has reached a certain age.

A dependent does not include anyone who is also enrolled as a Participant. No one can be a Dependent of more than one Participant.

- We do not offer coverage.
- If checked, this coverage meets the minimum value standard, and the cost of this coverage to you is intended to be affordable, based on employee wages.

 Even if your employer intends your coverage to be affordable, you may still be eligible for a premium discount through the Marketplace. The Marketplace will use your household income, along with other factors, to determine whether you may be eligible for a premium discount. If, for example, your wages vary from week to week (perhaps you are an hourly employee or you work on a commission basis), if you are newly employed mid-year, or if you have other income losses, you may still qualify for a premium discount.

If you decide to shop for coverage in the Marketplace, HealthCare.gov will guide you through the process. You may also call the Marketplace Customer Service Department at: 1-800-318-2596 or TYY at 1-855-889-4325.
