About Catholic Charities of St. Louis

Catholic Charities of St. Louis (CCSTL) has served as the charitable arm of the Archdiocese since 1912. In response to Holy Scripture and Catholic Social Teaching, our three-fold mission is:

- to serve people in need, especially those who are poor and vulnerable;
- to work to improve social conditions for all people in the community; and
- to call members of the Church and community to do the same.

Rather than a single social services agency, CCSTL is a federation of eight different agencies. Together we help mothers struggling with addiction; children who have suffered abuse or neglect; seniors who can no longer care for themselves; people suffering from mental illness; men and women who have lost jobs and homes; veterans needing help to carry on; those impacted by natural disasters, and many others in need. We primarily serve people in St. Louis City and County, but also throughout the 11 counties of the Archdiocese.

Here are the eight agencies, with descriptions and, where applicable, volunteerism links and volunteer coordinator contacts:

- Cardinal Ritter Senior Services provides a continuum of care to senior adults including housing, residential, healthcare, volunteer opportunities and supportive social services.
