500 bags of personal care items filled the Catholic Charities lobby and chapel prior to a May 16 food & supply distribution event.

Throughout the pandemic crisis, Catholic Charities continues serving people in need, including many who are requesting assistance for the first time in their lives.

If You Need Help

The Catholic Charities COVID-19 Call Center responds to requests for rent, mortgage, utility, and other direct financial assistance needed due to COVID-19 related hardship, Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Call 314.367.5500, extension 5984 (or choose 4 from the menu options).

If You Can Help

Last year, Catholic Charities services impacted more than 107,000 people. We know the need will be MUCH greater this year. With your support, we will continue to help lead relief efforts in our community.

Financial Support: Donations of any size are gratefully accepted online at www.ccstl.org; by mail at Catholic Charities PO Box 952393 St. Louis MO 63195-2393; or by calling Lisa at 314.256.5927.

In-Kind Donations: If you have access to personal protection equipment (PPE) such as masks, gowns, gloves, and sanitizing wipes that you are willing to donate, please contact Lisa at lshea@ccstl.org or 314.256.5927 to arrange delivery. We will distribute items to our agencies in greatest need.
